

Let's pray:

"A Decade
a Day
in October"

The Rosary is a devotion to honour Our Lady, the Mother of God. When we pray the Rosary, we pray to Mary who leads us to her Son, Jesus. Mary prays for each one of us and she asks her son, Jesus, to protect us and keep us safe.

Let us pray a "Decade a Day" for all our intentions.

The Rosary beads are divided up into five parts called decades. Each decade stands for one of the Mysteries in the life of Jesus. There are four Mysteries of the Rosary; each one reminds us of significant moments in the life of Jesus. They are:

- Joyful Mysteries
- Sorrowful Mysteries
- Glorious Mysteries
- Mysteries of Light.

Below are suggested intentions for each day:

Monday: For protection for all our families

Tuesday: For safety and courage for missionaries

Wednesday: For all who are suffering from the effects of war

Thursday: For peace in the world

Friday: For all who are sick and for those who care for them.
