

Lay Ministry Formation

Archdiocese of Dublin

In the past year we have worked with more than 1,500 volunteers to prepare, educate and form them for lay ministries, so that they can build up communities that are faith filled. We offer the following formation opportunities:

DIOCESAN CERTIFICATE IN CATECHESIS

Seven modules over seven monthly Saturdays, gathering in small groups, building competence and confidence to build up the faith community through sacramental preparation and adult formation.

PATHWAYS INTO MINISTRY

Two years of weekly sessions at DCU, exploring theology, scripture, liturgy, faith sharing and leading. Ideal for those exploring a ministry or leading in Pastoral Councils.

MINISTRY OF HOLY COMMUNION

Workshops learning best practice and deepening understanding of the importance of this ministry.

MINISTRY OF THE WORD

Workshops learning best practice and deepening understanding of the importance of this ministry.

ACCOMPANYING PARENTS

Workshop on 'Rejoice and Give Thanks' Preparation Process for the sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Communion.

CONFIRMATION MINISTRY

Workshops on 'Confirmation Connect' Parish Preparation process for sacramental teams.

LAUDATO SI' AWARDS

Training for Care of Creation teams to engage young people in their parish setting.

PASTORAL COUNCILS FORMATION

Workshops in areas to support synodal formation of pastoral councils so that they can confidently build up faith-filled communities.

YOUTH MINISTRY LEADERSHIP

Six modules over six Saturdays monthly, growing leadership skills and skills to accompany the young people of today to build up their communities.

FUNERAL PRAYER LEADERSHIP

Three modules learning how to prayerfully lead the rites in the Order of Christian Funerals in collaboration with their priest.

BAPTISM MINISTRY

Workshops on 'Called By God' Baptism Preparation Process for sacramental teams.
